The Journey - Hockessin - Hockessin

Welcome to The Journey - Hockessin

The Journey - Hockessin is more than just a place of worship; it's a vibrant community where families come together to celebrate faith and fellowship. Located in Hockessin, Delaware, this church offers a welcoming atmosphere that makes everyone feel at home.

Accessibility Features for Everyone

One of the notable aspects of The Journey is its commitment to inclusivity. The church provides a wheelchair-accessible car park and wheelchair-accessible entrance, ensuring that everyone, regardless of mobility, can easily access the facilities. This dedication to accessibility reflects the church's mission to be welcoming to all members of the community.

Engaging Worship and Uplifting Messages

Visitors rave about the energetic atmosphere during services. "They definitely put on a great production," mentions one attendee, highlighting the engaging live music worship that resonates with congregants. Another family member notes, "My kids love coming to Journey Kids each Sunday morning!" This emphasis on family involvement creates a nurturing environment where attendees can grow spiritually together.

A True Community Experience

The Journey is often described as "Real Church for Real People." Many who attend express feeling like part of a family. One attendee shares, "From the moment you walk through the doors, our family reflects God's love for us and each other." This warmth is felt throughout the church, making it an inviting place for newcomers.

Feedback from Attendees

While the majority of feedback is overwhelmingly positive, some have noted areas for improvement. For instance, one visitor commented on the volume of the music, suggesting a slightly lower level for better comfort. However, others appreciate the upbeat energy that fills the space.
